The Robinson Place is beautiful multi-use property with pasture and hunting land located on Crowley's Ridge in Cherry Valley. The location is known for its large population of whitetail deer and turkey. With a total of 280+/- acres of woods and rolling hills it could be an idyllic spot for a home site and/or cattle operation. Utilities are available from County Road 303. There is a deeded easement along the east line to gain access to the property. This is a "must see in person" property, the pictures and videos do not do it justice.
